

RIGHTS OF CHINAMEN

THEY ARE NOT PRIVILEGED LAND AND HOUSEHOLD CONSUMERS

England Has Not Engaged to Admit Chinese Emigrants and China Simply Agreed Not to Prevent Emigration

LOSBOES, June 1.—In the house of commons to-night Baron Henry De Worms, replying to a question, said that there was treaty with China giving Chinamen right to emigrate to British colonies, but England engaged to admit Chinese emigrants, China had simply engaged to prevent the emigration of Chinese subjects. He was hopeful that the proposed conference to consider the matter would arrive at a decision satisfactory to the colonies, while not wounding the susceptibilities of the mother country.

The susceptibilities of the Chinese Mr. Bright passed a fair day, if somewhat feverish to-night.

The Marquis of Lansdowne, the late governor-general of Canada, arrived at Moville. In an interview he said he was in excellent health and had been delighted with the voyage. He had been de-moved by the wealth of the farewell glim at Ottawa and Toronto. He has hopes for the future of the dominion owing to the good harvests in the north and the large number of people immigrating into the country.

At Merville the marquis was enabled exchange greetings with Lord Stanley Preston, as the two steamers passed.

The mayor protests strongly against government insistence on having the representatives at the meeting to be held in Rome to protest against the pope's rescript, on grounds that the meeting is to be a religious gathering.

The Rome correspondent of the New York Times reports that the French government is considering the possibility of sending a mission to Ireland in order to facilitate the conciliatory object of the rescript.

It is pointed out that the rescript states that Spain will not be represented at Paris exposition.

The enforcement of the German frontier regulations commenced yesterday.

The English gunboat Mistletoe has visited Matre Re and warned the French to quit the island.

BARCELONA, June 1.—The Spanish revolutionized the statue of Christopher Columbus in the harbor of Barcelona. The ceremony was made the occasion of great rejoicing.

THE EMPEROR GOES TO POTSDAM

He Makes the Trip Without Any Effects Resulting.

BERLIN, June 1.—Emperor Frederick a good night. He left for Potsdam at a clock this morning on the steam yacht Alexander. He was accompanied by imperial family. The weather was show and his majesty retired to the cabin as he got on board and remained there. The yacht was covered with flowers. Enthusiastic crowds were at the dock and great crowd greeted the yacht on her arrival at Spandau. There was much cheering bands played the national hymn. The Emperor appeared on the deck and bowed to the people and the empress

The government steamer Marie preceded the Alexander to clear the way of the mounds crowded with spectators, who gathered with the expectation of seeing emperor. The Princess of Saxe-Meiningen and the emperor's other daughters were waiting at the Glienke landing stage to receive him. The emperor ascended Steps without assistance. Accompanied by the empress he entered a closed carriage and was driven through the Sauerweg to Castle Friedrichskron. The pupils of the Sans Souci schools lined the road at which the Imperial carriage passed. The emperor looked very well, and bowed perfectly at the hearty acclamations of which he was greeted.

When the emperor reached Potsdam seemed to have benefited by the trip after a good luncheon, and afterward had a short sieste, broken sleep. After he awoke about two hours in the park.

The Crown Prince and the Mrs. Mäcker-Wegner, and Hovell accompanied the emperor and empress to the castle.

Carl Schurz attended a festival evening given by the academic youth in celebration of the seventieth birthday of Prof. Gustaf Zeller, who had been on the table of honor between Prof. Zeller and Gustaf. Prof. Gustaf offered a toast to the memory of his father, and spoke of academic reminiscences, and spoke of intellectual spirit which now pervaded the universities. In conclusion, he asked for cheers for the universities. His remarks were received with applause.

CONGRATULATING M. GOBLET
His Response to Tizsa's Speech regarded as Patriotic and Wise.

PARIS, JUNE 1.—The papal nuncio to congratulated Minister Goblet on his civil and patriotic response to Herr

Order the SUNDAY REBEL ALMAN, only 19¢ per month, delivered by carrier and post paid.

Excelsior Literary Club.
Excelsior Literary Club held its 30th meeting for the season at the residence of Mrs. Naylor, 125 P street northeast, on Tuesday afternoon. The subject which engaged the attention of the meeting was "The Life of the Poet Whittier." The club adjourned to meet again on the first Wednesday in October, the principal of the Progressive Association was held on Monday evening at the residence of Mrs. Wood, 422 A street northwest.

Hand Work of Public School Pupils
The industrial exhibition of the pupils of the public schools at the E. Street Bunk school has been much enjoyed by the community.

The night session was very largely attended. The commissioners and several of the trustees were present and were much pleased at the magnificent display of the work of the pupils. The hand work and drawing

Fell and Broke Both Legs. Shortly after 11 o'clock last night Willie Miller, a clerk in the pension office, fell from a high boarding house, at the same corner of Eleventh and K streets north and broke both legs. He is a heavy-built man and had just laid aside his crutches and in the act of undressing and getting ready to bed. Officer Byrne had him removed to Providence Hospital.

James Simms, colored, aged ten, while fishing yesterday afternoon off the same asylum wharf, fell overboard and drowned. The body was recovered and taken to Hillsdale, where the boy's parents live.